» The Faces of D-Day and Normandy
NEW The 75th anniversary of the Normandy landings during the Second World War — popularly known as D-Day — will occur on the 6th of June, 2019. Most veterans have passed from the scene but some are still with us and their memories should live forever. Dr. Brooke Blades joins us to discuss the broader Normandy Campaign and his new book, The Americans on D-Day and in Normandy. Brooke Blades, PhD, Archaeologist and Historian; Author, Images of War: The Americans on D-Day & in Normandy

» The Treaty of Versailles
NEW Signed on June 28, 1919 between Germany and the principal Allied powers, the Treaty of Versailles formally ended World War I. A century later, historian and award-winning author Michael Neiberg examines factors that influenced this treaty — problematic from the beginning — including the roles of the “Big Four” leaders and the enormous challenges facing those who tried to put the world back together after the global destruction of World War I. Also explored will be the treaty's impact on World War II, decolonization, the Cold War, and even today's complex world.

What Makes Great Movies Great
Featuring Marc Lapadula, Renowned Playwright, Screenwriter, Film Producer; Sr. Film Lecturer, Yale University
NEW Great film directors, taking on the toughest issues and most provocative themes of their day, often disguise their bold artistic intentions behind the mask of easily accessible genre forms and bury something quite profound. Clips from Sullivan’s Travels, Blow Up, Chinatown, The Verdict and other films will illustrate remarkable examples of cinematic mastery. Lapadula will also elucidate what is really going on beneath the scenes.

» Britain’s Occupation of Philadelphia During the American Revolution
NEW Explore “the disaffected,” a group of people who were pursued, pressured, and at times persecuted during the British occupation of Philadelphia, not because they chose the wrong side of the Revolution but because they tried not to choose a side at all. For these people, the war was neither a glorious cause to be won nor an unnatural rebellion to be suppressed, but a dangerous and costly calamity to be navigated with care. Discover the desperate measures Revolutionary authorities embraced in their quest to secure their own legitimacy and the consequences of a Revolutionary ideology that assumed the nation’s people to be a united and homogenous front.

  - LF22008 Creutzburg — 5 sessions, $83

Writing for the Children’s / YA Markets

NEW New or experienced writers who want to expand into younger markets will explore the formats, genres, and themes of books for infants through young adults, as well as the publishing landscape for children’s/YA writers. Exercises will help participants generate ideas geared towards young audiences, develop a young voice, and identify potential markets. Work on creating either a picture book manuscript (fiction or nonfiction) or a children’s/YA short story.

Nancy Kotkin, Professional Writer; Editor; Writing Instructor

- WC32001 Creutzburg
  - Wed, 7 pm to 9 pm, starts 5/15
  - LF32078 Intermediate Conversation Creutzburg — 6 sessions, $109

Autobiographical Writing

We all have stories — dramatic, humorous, breath-taking, heart-warming, inspirational. Learn to bring your stories fully to life for yourself and your reader through this class’ focus on the written work of each student, as well as teacher and student reactions and commentary. Bring your curiosity, your qualities of perception, your bravery, and a piece of writing to be read aloud by your instructor, and then discussed in class.

Kate Varley, Published Author

- Mon, 9:30 am to 11:30 am, starts 7/8
  - WC11001 Creutzburg — 4 sessions, $67

<td>$79 member $65</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Beyond Emily Dickinson: New England’s Women Literary Pioneers</td>
<td>NEW Focus on past and present writers from New England and discuss how they approached American history, ethnicity, gender and religion. Through short readings see how Mary Oliver, Edith Wharton, May Sarton and Annie Proulx, among others, contributed to our understanding of the socioeconomic and cultural issues of their times.</td>
<td>Fri, 11:15 am to 12:30 pm, starts 5/17</td>
<td>LH51058 Creutzburg</td>
<td>4 sessions</td>
<td>$66 member $54</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Queen Victoria’s Wicked Uncles</td>
<td>NEW Perhaps no other couple had worse luck with their sons. The seven sons of King George III and Queen Charlotte of Britain all engaged in almost every immoral act possible, which is why Victoria referred to them as her “Wicked Uncles.” We will wallow in the escapades of these brothers beginning with the Prince Regent, the future George IV and marvel at why the monarchy did not fall as a result.</td>
<td>Mon, 1:30 pm to 3 pm, starts 5/6</td>
<td>MT11071 Creutzburg</td>
<td>5 sessions</td>
<td>$77 member $65</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Opera: Torch Songs</td>
<td>NEW Stories of unrequited or lost love have inspired opera composers for centuries. View and discuss selections from Monteverdi's L'Orfeo, Cherubini's Medée, Massenet's Werther, Puccini's Madama Butterfly and Janáček's Jenůfa.</td>
<td>Elizabeth Cochran, AB, Bryn Mawr</td>
<td>New School of Music</td>
<td>Mon, 10 am to 11:15 am, starts 5/7</td>
<td>MT11078 Creutzburg</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Current Issues: Poverty in America</td>
<td>NEW Fifty-five years ago, President Lyndon Johnson declared “unconditional war” on poverty. Yet today, poverty is more prevalent in the United States than in most of the industrialized world. We can’t agree on how to measure poverty, let alone agree on what success the ‘War on Poverty’ has had. Join us to take a closer look at poverty: how best to measure it, where poverty stands today, what programs have worked and what not, and how we can best move forward.</td>
<td>Jerry Henige, Former Corporate Manager</td>
<td>Mon, 10:30 am to 12 N, starts 6/3</td>
<td>LH11015 Creutzburg</td>
<td>3 sessions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Playing the Faith Card: Shifting Influence of Religion on American Politics</td>
<td>NEW America is unusually diverse religiously, yet unusually tolerant. But tolerance has thinned when religion and politics mix. Discover how religion both divides and unites us in this examination of three distinct periods in American history. Last but not least, consider the politicization of religion today.</td>
<td>Mary Ann Meyers, PhD, Senior Fellow, John Templeton Foundation</td>
<td>Mon, 4 pm to 5 pm, starts 4/29</td>
<td>LH11002 Creutzburg</td>
<td>3 sessions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Our Ecological Footprint: Challenges in Living Sustainably</td>
<td>NEW Examine the current state of the global environment and enjoy lively discussion and debate on whether a reasonable standard of living can be sustained while also allowing for the abundance and diversity of life to flourish.</td>
<td>Terry Spahr, Ecologist and Documentary Filmmaker, Producer of the film 8 Billion Angels</td>
<td>Mon, 6:30 pm to 7:30 pm, starts 5/6</td>
<td>LH12003 Creutzburg</td>
<td>2 sessions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Politics on the Porch</td>
<td>Explore the history of income inequality and discuss the causes of its rise, ways that inequality affects our economy, our society and our democracy, as well as possible approaches to tackling the situation. Enjoy appetizers, wine and beer, included.</td>
<td>Jerry Henige, Former Corporate Manager</td>
<td>Wed, 5:30 pm to 7 pm, starts 5/8</td>
<td>LH32005 Creutzburg</td>
<td>3 sessions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Behavioral Economics and its Relevance to Health Care</td>
<td>NEW The recent field of behavioral economics suggests that previous theories may have misled us about how humans actually make decisions. Using Nobel Prize winner (Economics, 2002) Daniel Kahneman’s book Thinking Fast and Slow and Nobel Prize winner (Economics, 2017) Richard Thaler’s book Nudge as guides, Kent Bottles will explore how humans use heuristics (shortcuts) to make decisions that are sometimes wise and sometimes simply wrong and discuss how the principles of behavioral economics can nudges patients to become more healthy and doctors to accept changes necessary to reform our health care system.</td>
<td>Kent Bottles, MD, Lecturer at The Thomas Jefferson University College of Population Health</td>
<td>Wed, 1 pm to 2 pm, starts 6/5</td>
<td>LH31013 Creutzburg</td>
<td>2 sessions</td>

INTERNATIONAL TRIPS

Our trips are designed by experts and enhanced with knowledgeable leaders, lecturers and guides.

DISCOVER EGYPT & THE NILE RIVER VALLEY

FEBRUARY 7-20, 2020

Hosted by Pamela Webb, Ph.D.
Research Associate, Bryn Mawr College
Classical & Near Eastern Archaeology

• Traverse the Nile Valley like past explorers and experience the wonders of ancient treasures including the Sphinx, the Temple of Horus and the tombs of El Kab accompanied by expert Egyptologists.

• See life on the Nile from a different perspective on a four night cruise aboard a private dahabiya, a deluxe 14 guest sailing vessel.

• Spend two days exploring Cairo’s iconic monuments and venues such as the Great Pyramid, the Egyptian Museum of Antiquities and the Khan El-Khalil bazaar. In the evenings, relax among some of the area’s most opulent hotels.

• In Luxor, view the Karnak Temple Complex, visit the Valley of the Kings and Nobles, the Mortuary Temple of Hatshepsut and Colossi of Memnon.

• Marvel at the colorful carvings in the Temple of Seti 1 when you travel beside the Nile to Abydos.

Prices start at $5,995 per person based on double occupancy.

CRUISE CELTIC LANDS & D-DAY SITES

JUNE 7-16, 2020

With lectures and guided D-Day visits by Dwight David Eisenhower II and Alan Packwood, Director of the Churchill Archives and a Fellow of Churchill College, Cambridge, England.

• Commemorate the 76th anniversary of the historic D-Day landings on Normandy beaches during this eight night cruise featuring guided excursions at each port of call.

• Two full-day excursions, with lunch, to the historic D-Day beaches of Normandy with visits to Utah and Omaha Beaches, Sainte-Mère-Eglise, and the American Military Cemetery.

• City tour of Dublin, visit to Trinity College to see the Book of Kells, visit to Caernarfon Castle, Iona Abbey, 13th-century Eilean Donan Castle, Tobermory on the Isle of Mull and the Tresco Abbey Gardens.

• Private performance by the renowned Welsh Maeldwyn Choir and lunch in Llandudno.

Program includes all meals, complimentary beverages and free WiFi. Paris pre-cruise and Edinburgh and Glasgow post cruise options available. Cabin prices start at $6,895 per person based on double occupancy.
