ALUMNI CAMPUS
ABROAD®

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Join us for an enriching cultural exploration in Mexico! The Yucatán's Mayan riches and historic grandeur take center stage on this seven-night, first-class journey based in Mérida, a colonial-era beauty and cultural hub.

Be awed by the impressive Mayan cities of Chichén Itzá and Uxmal, both UNESCO World Heritage sites. On guided tours, delight in the heritage and personality along the colorful streets of Mérida and Izamal and inside a unique cemetery. Connect with the Yucatán's natural beauty on a cruise that reveals flocks of flamingos and a visit to an underground cenote. You'll also meet artisans, soak in the live music and fun vibes at two cultural performances, plus feast on incredible cuisine!

This well-rounded program features the camaraderie and security of group travel and the services of a professional Travel Director. What makes it even more special is our commitment to education. Throughout your travels, expert guides and lecturers provide meaningful context to enhance your experience. All these elements make for an unbeatable travel value that will generate lots of interest, so guarantee your place by reserving today. We'll see you soon in the Yucatán!

Sincerely,

Day 1 | In Transit | Mérida, Mexico

Depart for Mérida, Mexico. 🚗
 Arrive and transfer 🔄 to the Villa Mercedes Merida, Curio Collection by Hilton.

Day 2 | Mérida

Grand Maya World Museum. Get great insights on ancient and contemporary Mayan culture at this modern museum filled with unique artifacts and engaging exhibits.

Mérida City Tour. Stroll with your guide through this lively city founded in 1542 by Spanish conquistador Francisco de Montejo and his son on the site of the ancient Mayan city of T'hó. Admire stately buildings like the 16th-century Cathedral de San Ildefonso in Plaza Grande, and go inside the Palacio del Gobierno de Yucatán to view dramatic murals by Mexican painter Fernando Castro Pacheco. Savor delicious Yucatecan specialties at lunch.

Enrichment: History of the Yucatán Peninsula.

This evening, join your fellow travelers for a Welcome Reception and Dinner at a restaurant.

Day 3 | Uxmal | Muna | Peba

Uxmal. Regarded as some of the finest examples of Mayan architecture, Uxmal's stunning ruins reveal meticulous designs and elaborate stone carvings. On your guided tour, note the recurring decorative motif of rain god Chac, an important deity in a region with little rainfall. Learn how the ancient Maya's beliefs about life and death influenced their civilization as you see the Pyramid of the Magician, the House of the Governor and other monuments. Chat about your visit over a tasty lunch nearby.

🌐AHI Connects | Ceramic Workshop.

Visit an artisan in Muna who employs ancient methods to create exquisite reproductions of Mayan ceramics.

Cenote Sambula. Beneath the Yucatán lie thousands of cenotes, caverns formed by sinkholes in the limestone bedrock that contain natural freshwater wells. In a region with no rivers or lakes, these sources of fresh water were vital to the earliest inhabitants, and some cenotes became sacred sites for the ancient Maya. Venture down to see a beautiful cenote tended by a group of families in Peba.

Enrichment: Contemporary Mexico.

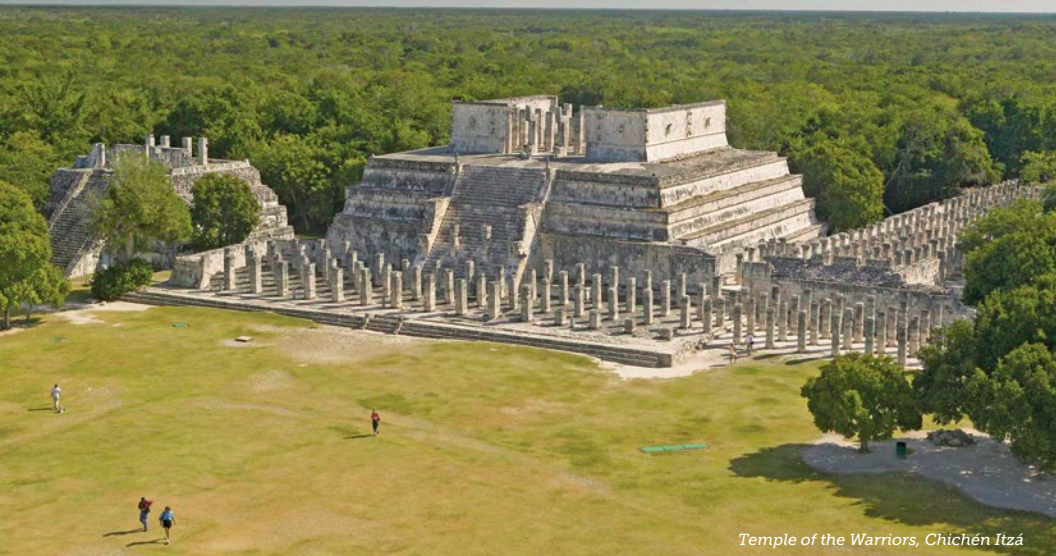

Yucatecan Serenade. In one of Mérida's inviting plazas tonight, delight in the romantic melodies of this celebrated tribute to women and their beauty.

Day 4 | Sihunchen Park | Celestún Estuary

Celestún Estuary. As you travel to the coast today, stop at Sihunchen Park, an ecotourism site, for an interesting talk on Mayan astronomy and myths. Next, head to the Celestún Estuary, a special gem for nature lovers. This serene wetland is a favorite destination for migrating birds. Breathtaking flocks of graceful, pink American flamingos are the stars here, wading together and flying overhead. Take in this spectacular show and spot other bird species on a cruise through the lush mangrove and petrified forest.

Relax over lunch at a restaurant by the beach, then return to Mérida for tonight's activities.

🌟PYJ | Choose one of these excursions:

- Street Food & Photography Walk. Capture the historic grandeur of Paseo de Montejo and indulge in must-try, sweet and savory treats in Plaza Santa Ana.
- Honey Tasting & Stingless Bees. The Maya valued native Melipona bees for the medicinal properties of their honey. Sample varieties of honey and delve into beekeeping practices.
- Las Casas Cámara. Tour a palatial French-style mansion on Paseo de Montejo built in 1911 with splendid decorative details.

Day 5 | Chichén Itzá

Chichén Itzá. This magnificent Mayan city flourished as a hub of military and religious power from the eighth to the 13th centuries. On a guided tour, marvel at the majestic pyramid dedicated to Kukulcan, the feathered serpent god; the imposing Temple of the Warriors; the Caracol; the vast field of the Great Ballcourt; and more.

Break for lunch before your return to Mérida.

Noche Mexicana. Feel uplifted by Mariachi music and swirling dancers at a joyful cultural event that's a Mérida tradition.

Day 6 | Hoctún | Izamal

Izamal. Stop in Hoctún to visit its colorful cemetery that exemplifies the spirit of the Yucatán's relationship with death. Discover brightly painted tombs, which family members have elaborately adorned with flowers, religious images and touching sculptures. Learn about the traditions of Hanal Pixán, the celebration honoring the dead. Then, revel in Izamal, known as Yucatán's Yellow City, lined with

Celestún Estuary
